Lima, OH (9/13/2016): Allen East High School SADD Team is getting ready for their homecoming that is scheduled for this upcoming weekend. Allen East students, just like hundreds of other students across Allen County, are making sure they have everything ready for the big game and the dance to honor the Homecoming Queen & Court. The SADD Team is decorating their homecoming parade float, hoping to encourage their fellow students to Drive Safe! Arrive Alive!

The National Award winning, Allen East SADD Team, will be at the Harrod Park by 5:30 p.m. with their parade float. Student SADD members will be prepared to talk with the media, hoping to ensure that all area high school students Drive Safe! Arrive Alive!

The Allen East SADD Team wants to remind not only their classmates at Allen East High School to be safe during homecoming celebrations, but to raise student awareness all across Allen County about the risks students face and the real tragedy of vehicular crashes. The consequences of being involved in a serious crash can be tragic. The Allen East SADD Team wants to educate students, teachers, and parents alike as well as to remind them how important it is to Drive Safe! :

- Buckle Up! Arrive Alive!
- Slow Down! Arrive Alive!
- Don't Text & Drive! Arrive Alive!

SADD Advisor Kelly Prichard said, "It is our hope that not only Allen East students -but students all across Allen County- have a safe and memorable homecoming celebration, free of vehicle crashes and the related injuries . . . tragedies that result from making poor decisions behind the steering wheel."
